Concurrent Degree Program for JD and MPS Degrees

I. Curricular Requirements

A student at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock or the University of Arkansas Clinton School of Public Service may pursue the Juris Doctorate (JD) and Master of Public Service (MPS) degrees under a combined degree program which allows cross-credit for specified courses. The combined degree program offers a potential savings of credit hours in the total credit hours otherwise required for both degrees. A student in the combined degree program must complete all the requirements for the JD degree as specified by the Bowen School of Law, and all requirements for the MPS as specified by the Clinton School of Public Service. The combined degree program is subject to the following conditions:

- A. In order to receive cross-credit, credit must be earned for the course in the degree program in which the course is offered. For instance, courses in the MPS program listed in Section IV below will receive credit in the JD program only if the student received credit for the course in the MPS program.
- B. In the MPS program, a student may receive elective credits for 9 semester hours of approved courses in the JD program completed with a minimum grade of C-. A list of the approved JD courses is set out below.
- C. In the JD program, a student may receive elective credits for 12 semester hours of approved courses in the MPS program completed with a minimum grade of B. A list of approved MPS courses is set out below.
- D. In the JD program, a student must complete one of the following courses in addition to courses otherwise required for the JD degree: Administrative Law, a Health Law course, an International Law course, Environmental Law, or Civil Liberties.
- E. A student may not receive credit in both programs for courses that cover the same or substantially equivalent material.

II. Administrative Policies and Procedures

- A. The Clinton School of Public Service Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and the Bowen School of Law Associate Dean for Academic Affairs shall meet biannually, or more often as needed, to evaluate the combined degree program. They shall include other persons knowledgeable about the combined degree program. At this meeting, they shall consider matters such as current course offerings and coordination of course sequences, and make recommendations for amendments of the program to their respective faculties. Each of the above persons or their designee may approve a course or courses not on this list between biannual meetings if the course or courses are compatible with the goals of the Combined Degree program or the course is the substantial equivalent of an approved course. Any courses approved in this manner must be considered for permanent inclusion in the program after the next biannual meeting.
- B. A student enrolled in the combined degree program is subject to all administrative policies and procedures of each program during the period of enrollment in the combined degree program.
- C. A student must obtain admission separately to the JD program and the MPS program. Once admitted to both programs, a student enters the combined degree program by filing the attached Declaration of Intent to Pursue Combined Degrees.

- D. A student currently enrolled in one program may enter the combined degree program by obtaining admission to the other program and filing the Declaration of Intent to Pursue Combined Degrees.
- E. A student is not enrolled in the combined program until copies of the Declaration of Intent to Pursue Combined Degrees are filed with the Registrar of the School of Law and with the Office of Admissions at the Clinton School of Public Service.
- F. A student who has completed one degree may not enter the combined degree program to complete the other degree.
- G. After filing the Declaration of Intent to Pursue Combined Degrees, the student shall schedule a joint meeting with the Associate Deans or their designees to discuss times of enrollment in each program, preliminary course selection, and potential conflicts.
- H. A student who enters the combined degree program must select which program to pursue first and notify the other program in order that enrollment may be deferred. Concurrent enrollment in classes in both programs is normally permitted, except that under no circumstances will concurrent enrollment be permitted during the first year of the JD program. Concurrent enrollment requires the written permission of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the School of Law and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the Clinton School of Public Service. The total credit hour load in both programs for concurrently enrolled students shall not exceed the normal maximum load in either program without the approval of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the School of Law and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the Clinton School of Public Service.
- I. Grade point averages and class standings in each program are determined without consideration of the credit hours accepted from the other programs.
- J. Except as modified by Sections I and II of this statement, a student must comply with all degree requirements established for each program including any time limit in which to complete the degree.
